ABOUT SCHWAB'S MODERN WEALTH SURVEY

Schwab's 6th annual Modern Wealth Survey examines how Americans think about saving, spending, investing and wealth. The online survey was conducted by Logica Research from February 10, 2022 to February 27, 2022 among a sample of 500 New York residents aged 21 to 75. Quotas were set to balance the local sample on key demographic variables.

THE RISE OF VALUES INVESTING

Almost three-quarters of New Yorkers (74%) say that their personal values drive their decisions more today than they did two years ago and nearly an equal number (78%) say they prioritize using their money to support causes they care about:

	All Americans	New Yorkers
My personal values guide my investment choices	73%	81%
I invest in companies that align with my personal values	69%	79%
It is a key priority for me to use my money to support causes I care about	69%	78%
My personal values guide how I make life decisions more today than they did two years ago	73%	74%

When asked which personal values are their biggest motivators, New York residents prioritize doing what's best for others, including the environment and the greater good as well as their family and friends, followed by having positive work ethics and doing the right thing.

VALUES-DRIVEN SPENDING

Similar to all Americans, more than eight in 10 (86%) New Yorkers agree that their personal values play an important role in how they manage their finances. When making a purchase, personal values rank third on the list:
