

ABOUT SCHWAB'S MODERN WEALTH SURVEY

Schwab's 6th annual Modern Wealth Survey examines how Americans think about saving, spending, investing and wealth. The online survey was conducted by Logica Research from February 10, 2022 to February 27, 2022, among a sample of 750 Washington D.C. residents aged 21 to 75. Quotas were set to balance the local sample on key demographic variables.

THE RISE OF VALUES INVESTING

Almost three-quarters of Washingtonians (73%) say that their personal values drive their decisions more today than they did two years ago and an equal number (73%) say they prioritize using their money to support causes they care about:

	All Americans	Washingtonians
My personal values guide my investment choices	73%	73%
My personal values guide how I make life decisions more today than they did two years ago	73%	73%
It is a key priority for me to use my money to support causes I care about	69%	73%
I invest in companies that align with my personal values	69%	64%

When asked which personal values are their biggest motivators, Washington D.C. residents prioritize doing what's best for others, including the environment and the greater good as well as their family and friends, followed by saving more and doing the right thing.

VALUES-DRIVEN SPENDING

Similar to all Americans, almost nine in 10 (87%) Washingtonians agree that their personal values play an important role in how they manage their finances. When making a purchase, personal values rank third on the list:
